Man Can Live

On Just Four Foods—With Whiskey

Today's housewife can choose from over 8,000 food items on supermarket shelves. But, if necessary, she and her family could subsist for many months on just four food items, according to San Francisco internist Dr. Albert H. Behnke. All man needs to survive, he says, is powdered milk, cooking oil, fortified cereal and multi-vitamin capsules. But, he adds, a bottle of whiskey might be needed to help endure such a stringent diet.

Master Sergeant William Q. Helms, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cammell, Helms of Rt. 1, New Brockton, is a member of the Aerospace Defense Command (ADC) unit at Keflavik Air Force Base, Iceland, that has received national recognition for proficiency in identifying Soviet bombers operating over the North Atlantic. Ground crews provide essential support for air defense responses over the North Atlantic. Dangers in some of the most adverse flying weather in the world while patrolling the northern approaches to North America. Last year, fighter interceptors piloted in the 37th reported that Soviet flights in the area more than doubled those of 1967. Recently the Soviets have conducted regular reconnaissance flights over NATO naval fleets in the vicinity.

Constantly testing our air defense responses over the North Atlantic, the flights of Soviet "Bear" bombers are intercepted at high altitudes. The Bear, capable of reaching any target in the United States without refueling, can carry air-to-surface missiles or a 25,000-pound bomb load. The ADC squadron aircrews and support personnel, serving with the Icelandic Defense Forces, were cited for sustained superior operational efficiency in intercepting and identifying aircraft.

The fountain was purchased by the Water and Light Board and will be installed by the city.

The next item of business was the subject of making the street in front of the post office a one way street. The council discussed the pro and con of making this street one way and discussed which way would be best. No decision was reached and Chief Smart was instructed to make a survey and take the appropriate action.

City Clerk Winston was instructed to contact both local banks about some of the "Children at Play" signs to be put up.

AT CITY HALL

The Elba City Council met Monday night in the City Hall. All members were present for this meeting.

The first order of business was complaints from local citizens about uncontrolled garbage from local businesses, mainly grocery stores. The councilmen asked City Clerk Harris Winston to contact the store owners and request them to place all perishables in covered containers in accordance with the City code.

The group went into a lengthy discussion of complaints about the drainage ditch that drains down the hill on the left of Claxton Street, behind the houses facing the road. The ditch has been discussed many times during the recent months but action has been postponed due to the magnitude of the project. The council voted Monday Night to contact the individual homeowners and see if they would bear the cost of pipe in the ditch if the city would place and cover it.

Police Chief Jack Smart reported that his department badly needed an air conditioner for at least one of the police cars. The council voted to purchase an air conditioner for the newest car (the one with radar equipment). Mayor Brunson, City Clerk Winston and Chief Smart were instructed to get prices from local merchants and to make the purchase.

Chief Smart requested a pay difference between patrolmen and Sergeants. This was granted by the Council with the wage being between that of a regular patrolman and the assistant chief.

BRAINSTORMS

With Fernin Cox

I missed writing this column last week and fully intended that I would stop for good. There were a number of reasons for this. They included: It is hard work coming up with variety each week that would be interesting. To many of my readers are accepting my work as the gospel rather than just an opinion and I do not feel that my limited ability warrants this trust, especially when most of our readers are better qualified than me. However, during this past weekend, I had some long talks with myself and reversed my decisions. Here we go again.

Enterprise Junior College is interested in holding some extension courses in Elba if the people of Elba are interested. We had a news article about this last week and have gotten in a fair amount of response. Among the non credit courses requested are Interior Decorating, New Math, Accounting and Alabama History. If enough people are interested in these courses, the college has promised me that the courses will be scheduled. There is almost always courses going in Opp, Troy, and Enterprise and at Ft. Rucker, so why not in Elba? It saves driving thirty or more miles and probably will interest someone who would not drive those miles.

I got a card from Mr. and Mrs. Bob Folsom on Monday. They are apparently busy with their vacation in California. All the card said was "Come see to believe, Bob." It was on a picture post card showing the mass of crossing freeways in Los Angeles and he is right, you gotta see it to believe it.

Bert Morrow came into the office Tuesday morning. He was all business. Last week his dad placed an ad for both him and his sister, Gypsy, on their pea shelling business. Bert reports that he got so much business that he had to run another one saying he didn't want any Saturday or Sunday business. His sister did not want to help pay for the ad so Bert was not interested in saying about her schedule. Bert placed his ad, paid cash for it and left headed for the bank with his profits for the last week. He had all the enthusiasm you could expect from a grammar school student who has found a successful money making project that he likes!

I am definitely no authority on law but until someone shows me that it is wrong, I say that any so called illegal "search and seizure" should automatically become legal when it results in finding of something that is not legal such as bootleg whiskey or dope.

Mrs. Lunsford Honored With Dinner Party

Mrs. Hilda S. Lunsford retired from teaching after approximately 45 years in the classroom. For the past 24 years, she has been associated with the Goodman Junior High School.

"Miss Hilda" as she is referred to, was educated in the Coffee and Dale school systems. In the summer of 1924, after earning a second grade teachers certificate, she began her long and dedicated career. She taught her first school in Coffee County with other schools following. Then came her 'suitcase school teaching' during the depression when teachers were rotated on a boarding schedule.

She left teaching for a short time and entered welfare work but returned in 1955.

She and E. F. (Shorty) Lunsford were married in 1938 and moved to Oak Ridge, Tennessee in 1945 where he was employed and she held various positions while there.

They returned to Elba in 1945 and she began her lengthy association with the Goodman Junior High School.

In honor of her years of dedicated service, Miss Lunsford was special guest at a dinner party in the Enterprise Steak House with members and of the faculty, and their wives and husbands attending.

The honoree was the recipient of a gift of silver at the dinner party hosted by the faculty. She also received special recognition at the Goodman Junior High Graduation exercises where she received another gift of silver.

For her closing remarks of her teaching career, she said, "There has not been joy all the way in teaching, but there has been much joy all along the way."

What consolation is there in knowing "we didn't come from apes" when there are so many signs that "we are going to the dogs?"

The Bible does not give a scientific explanation of the world's creation (we shouldn't even expect it), but it is crystal clear as to the method of the world's redemption. Though we can't alter the past we can, with God's help, shape the future positively. Then let us not go on a non-sensical heresy hunt over "the words of Moses." Rather let us get totally involved in the "work of Christ."

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Burch, and Billy and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tuma of Pensacola, visited relatives in Elba over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Rhodes and Don spent the weekend in Montgomery and Prattville visiting with relatives.

Couple Weds In Birmingham

Miss Mary Sue McWhorter became the bride of Dr. Lawrence A. Farris, Jr. on June 7 at the Trinity Methodist Church of Birmingham.

Dr. Edwin Kimbrough officiated at the 8 p.m. ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. McWhorter of Birmingham and Mr. L. A. Farris, Sr., and the late Mrs. Farris of Elba.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk organza over a mesh of silk organza, a pou de soi, designed on Empire lines with a Venetian lace bodice. The chapel length train was of silk organza. Her veil of illusion attached to a cluster of leaves which were embroidered in seed pearls and beads. She carried a nosegay of miniature chrysanthemums, lilies of valley and yellow roses.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Larry Hibbler, matron of honor and Miss Margaret Oliver, maid of honor. Their ankle length gowns were of spring green faille styled on Princess lines with full length back panel bordered in Venetian lace. Their bouquets were nosegays of spring flowers.

Thomas McWhorter, brother of the bride, served as best man and ushers were Larry Hibbler, William Edige and David McKinley.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church dining room.

After a wedding trip to California, the couple will make their home in Birmingham where Dr. Farris Mrs. J. C. Farris, Jr., and will intern at the Baptist family, Kinross, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Meek, Opelika; Relatives and friends of Mrs. J. C. Tyler, Jr., and Dr. Farris' attending from family, Montgomery and the Elba area were: Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Farris, Mrs. J. C. Farris, Sr., and family, Oakwood, and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Georgia.

Whigham, Trammell To Marry Bride-Elect Honored At Recent Shower

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Whigham of Enterprise announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth (Liz) to Ray Trammell, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Trammell, Sr., of Elba.

The bride-elect is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Whigham of Enterprise and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jones of Daleville.

She graduated from Enterprise High School and Napier Field School of Cosmetology.

The groom-to-be is the grandson of Mr. Paul A. Trammell and the late Mrs. Paul Trammell and Mrs. Mattie Seymour and the late Mr. Seymour, all of Elba.

He will be attending Troy State University in the fall where the couple will reside.

The wedding will be an event of August 30th at 7:30 p.m. at the Park Avenue Baptist Church in Enterprise.

No formal invitations are being sent, but all friends and relatives of the couple are invited to attend.

Volunteers Needed In Social Work

Volunteer aides to help with the Rural Resources Program are being sought. Persons interested in social and charity work are asked to contact the Elba Rural Resources office (897-2667) or the Enterprise Community Action Office (847-2057).

Miss Linda Pearce, bride-elect of Cabert Mills, was honored with a miscellaneous shower, Saturday, June 12, in the home of Mrs. Mack Moore in the Brookdale Subdivision. The party hours were from seven until nine.

Attending the honoree in the receiving line were her mother, Mrs. Coston Pearce; Mrs. Lawrence Mills, mother of the groom-to-be; Mrs. Moore and Miss Lude Davis.

The refreshment table was decorated with the color scheme of green and yellow accented by candleabraums encircled by grapes.

Serving also as hostesses were: Mrs. Joseph Blasi, Miss Frankie Wise, Mrs. Wayne Marler, Mrs. Jimmy Wise, Jr., Mrs. Jerry Brown, Mrs. Gordon Clark, Mrs. Dwight Kelley, Mrs. Jerry Chancellor, Mrs. Charles Kennett, Mrs. Stokes-Haire and Mrs. Don Kimbro.

WE PROTEST

The View from the Steeple by Jim Auchmuty

Leadership of the Presbyterian Church, meeting in Mobile several weeks back, affirmed that the Genesis account of creation does not necessarily rule out biological evolution.

The statement will upset many people. (Evolution has been a recent subject on the docket of the legislature in both Alabama and Tennessee). But should it, really?

Too many of those that I have known who are so concerned with heritage are little interested in destiny. They get worked-up about where mankind came from but are apathetic about where mankind is

The SUN shines BRIGHT

But wherever it shines... there are shadows. Wherever there are golden opportunities there are also somber tragedies. Some fail to grasp their blessings.

Ours is a nation which guarantees to every child the opportunity for religious training. Yet ours is a nation which smarts under the scourge of a moral disease — juvenile delinquency.

In blessing you with a son or daughter, God has entrusted to you a precious soul. You are required by law to give your child a secular education. But, despite the scourge of delinquency, a free nation must leave to your conscience the question of your child's moral and religious education.

God has blessed America. With a nearby Church ready and eager to provide Christian training for your child, and religious foundation for your family's life — the Sun shines bright. But there are shadows. You must decide!

Washington Report

by GEORGE ANDREWS
Member of Congress
Third District of Ala.

Every war has its apologists and defeatists, its traitors and sordid profiteers, and the longer the conflict lasts, the more credibility and respectability these characters assume.

So it is with the Vietnam War, that seemingly endless and grossly mismanaged affair to which the United States has committed well over 500,000 of her finest men.

Exploiting the emotions of a war-weary America mourning her dead and expending her wealth, the preachers of isolationism and pacifism have taken to the street, to the college campus—even to the very halls of Congress—asailing the military establishment in general, much in the manner of a Salem witch hunt.

A recent resolution by the left-wing Americans for Democratic Action, calling for the unilateral withdrawal of American troops from Vietnam unfortunately shows that some Americans and few I am sure, will take peace at any price, honorable or otherwise. But if the absurdities of the ADA are to be expected, the behavior of some members of Congress is mystifying, to say the least.

The rabble who carry the Vietnam flag and preach the destruction of this Nation must surely take a cue or two from the armchair generals and perennial second-guessers who dwell on the death and destruction that Americans obviously should not have been there to begin with.

No one in his right mind wants war. Yet, the fact that war is bad and costly is not in itself a solution to the problem. Shouting the horrors of war from the rooftops is hardly constructive criticism of our involvement in Vietnam, as long as the enemy threatens the lives of our soldiers and the soldiers and civilians of South Vietnam.

The real tragedy of the situation, of course, is that we are not trying to win the war. We have committed thousands of troops in that small Asian country and plagued them with senseless target and movement restrictions that play into the enemy's hands.

"Vietnam is a classic example of how not to fight a war," said Retired Admiral U. S. Grant Sharp, former Commander-in-Chief Pacific and a great military leader. "The 'gradual' approach requires the expenditures of much more of one's manpower, resources and prestige than is necessary."

Who could disagree with the Admiral when he reflected thusly, "If we had fought World War II as we have fought the Vietnam War, we would still be fighting it — if we hadn't lost it."

Yet, the mistakes being made in Administration strategy in Vietnam must not and cannot legitimately be a basis for a relaxation in military preparedness. Those sowing the seeds of isolationism and anti-militarism fail to realistically consider the often started militaristic goals of international Communism, directed primarily by the Soviet Union.

The notion that war is horrible and that domestic needs are not being met are certainly not grounds for reducing those costs necessary for military preparedness. What has been gained if we build model cities and have them wiped out by Soviet missiles — all because the very survival of the Nation did not rate top priority when there was still time to do something.

I do not believe that the American people will accept anything less than the strongest defense against aggression. The Soviets have been building up militarily for years, provoking one incident after another, and disregarding treaties throughout their history. There is ample evidence of Soviet deceit and plans for world dominance.

Admiral Hyman G. Rickover, one of our brilliant Naval leaders, expressed the danger in his own expert manner, when he said, "If history teaches anything, it is surely that weakness invites attack; that it takes but one aggressor to plunge the world into war against the wishes of dozens of peace-loving nations if the former is militarily strong and the latter are not."

Whether things do or do not go well in Paris, Geneva, or any other place we are now or may in the future be negotiating with the Communists, we must be strong militarily. If we disarm, we can no longer speak from a position of strength, and when we can not do that, our fate is sealed.

leader. Mr. Jack Phillips announced two movies which were shown. One was entitled "4-H Horsemanship," and the other was a home movie showing scenes of riders in the local horse club.

Following the movies, club officers were elected as follows: President, Terri Olsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Olsen; Vice President, Lyla Fran Boyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Boyd; Secretary - Treasurer, Carol Myles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Myles; Club Reporter, Sheila Sizemore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Trail. The meeting was then adjourned.

All interested persons are cordially invited to attend the next regular meeting of the 4-H Horse Club.

The scheduled program is 347-8032 or Mr. Jack Phillips, 347-1486, on "Safety, Handling, Bridling and Drill." The meeting will be held Saturday, June 28, 10 a.m. at the Enterprise Horse Arena. The arena is located just Coffee County 4-H behind Garwood Industries Horse Club on the New Brockton highway.
